2011 Hematology Highlights: A Post ASH Review

LOCATION

Hilton Omaha
1001 Cass Street, Omaha, Nebraska

TARGET AUDIENCE

Physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, residents, and fellows in the specialty areas of oncology, hematology, internal medicine, radiation oncology, and pathology.

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

This regional conference is designed to update the target audience on new treatments and management of acute leukemia, hemostasis/thrombosis, lymphoma, multiple myeloma, myelodysplasia and myeloproliferative diseases as presented during the 2010 annual meeting of the American Society of Hematology (ASH). Presentations will be delivered by international experts who will summarize the most relevant and useful information from the 2010 ASH meeting, while allowing the opportunity for participants to be involved in the interactive question/answer sessions.

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this conference, the participant should be able to:

- Review recent advances and presentations on hematologic malignancies from the 2010 meeting of the American Society of Hematology
- Review recent advances and presentations on hemostasis and thrombosis from the 2010 meeting of the American Society of Hematology
- Apply new developments in hematology for optimal patient management
