The University of Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) invites applications and nominations for the position of Assistant Dean, College of Nursing, West Nebraska Division. The College offers a baccalaureate degree program; the Graduate College offers master and doctoral degree programs (MSN, PhD). The College is one of five academic units in the University of Nebraska Medical Center: College of Dentistry, College of Medicine, College of Nursing, College of Pharmacy, and School of Allied Health Professionals. The College of Nursing is the largest nursing school in the state with a total of 134 faculty and approximately 1023 students at its four campus sites: Omaha, Lincoln, Kearney, and Scottsbluff. At the West Nebraska Division, on the Scottsbluff campus, there are 15 faculty, 5 staff, and 139 students (124 BSN, 13 MSN, 1 PhD, 1 PMC).

The Assistant Dean is responsible to the Dean for oversight of administrative, budget, and academic matters; this includes managing the learning environment and operation of the division. The Assistant Dean is responsible for management of the West Nebraska Division and assures its congruency with the mission and goals of the College. The College is seeking a strong academic leader to build on the school’s traditions of excellence in teaching, distance learning, research and outreach to underserved populations. The ideal candidate will have:

- Master’s degree in nursing
- Earned doctorate in nursing or a related field
- Experience and demonstrated skill in administration, interpersonal relations, teaching, and curriculum development
- Demonstrated research/scholarly activity
- Eligibility to practice nursing in Nebraska
- Leadership activity in professional organizations

UNMC offers a competitive salary and excellent benefits package; rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled (start date is July 1, 2007). Applicants must apply online at https://jobs.unmc.edu. Please refer to requisition #1745 when applying. You will be asked to attach your curriculum vitae, a letter detailing your qualifications and interest in the position, and names of three to five potential references.
